

Dave Goeller

Dave received a Bachelors degree in Agricultural Economics and Agronomy and his Masters degree in Adult Education, from the University of Nebraska. He began his career at UNL in 1984 and has worked in the area of Farm Management education, and has been associated with Extension programs such as Managing for Tomorrow, Decisions Now, Returning to the Farm and Winning the Game. Recently Dave has focused his efforts in the area of Farm and Ranch Business Succession and Estate Planning. He joined the Center as the Assistant Director in 2006.

Dave, a former University of Nebraska football player and his high-school sweet heart Cindy, are involved with the family farming operation in Northeast Nebraska, where they raise corn and soybeans. They have three grown children, Matt, Sarah, and Rachel and four grandchildren.