

Paul Mahoney

Paul Mahoney is a Loan Officer for AgCountry Farm Credit Services and located in Morris, MN. He manages a portfolio of credit and financial services for the local grain and livestock producers as well as several local agribusinesses. AgCountry Farm Credit Services is an independently owned and locally governed lending institution. Headquartered in Fargo, ND AgCountry Farm Credit Services provides credit and financial services to more than 12,000 farmers and ranchers in eastern North Dakota and northwest and west central Minnesota.

Paul was raised on a farm in Kensington, MN. He holds a Masters of Science degree in Agricultural and Applied Economics from the University of Minnesota and a Bachelor of Science degree from North Dakota State University. Before joining AgCountry, he was a Regional Extension Educator in Ag Business Management with the University of Minnesota Extension Service.

Paul, his wife Christine and two daughters live in Morris.